Film Commissions & Regional Institutions

Andalucía • Cultura & AFC

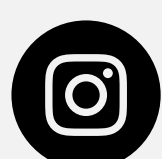

The Andalusian Agency of Cultural Institutions and the Andalucía Film Commission join forces at the European Film Market (EFM) to showcase a vibrant, contemporary image of Andalusia. Their goal is to highlight the region's commitment to fostering talent, creativity, and cultural innovation. The Agency promotes Andalusian cultural enterprises and develops new markets, while the Film Commission, founded in 1998, positions Andalusia as a prime filming destination. It provides filming location information and liaises with the audiovisual industry and public administrations. Both organizations work together to enhance tourism, economic growth, and job opportunities. At EFM, they demonstrate their shared mission to amplify Andalusia's cultural industries globally and showcase the region as a hub of artistic and cinematic excellence.
