

The European Procurement Forum

WEBINAR

Overview of the United Nations Procurement Market

January 23, 2019 9:00 AM - 10:00 AM EST

Speakers:

Karel Smékal
EUPF President

Miguel Alvarez
Chief
Operational Sustainment and Healthcare Section
Procurement Division
Office of Supply Chain Management

The European Procurement Forum

- A non-profit organization formed by government representatives of member states of the European Union in New York.
- Goal: to help European companies learn how to do business with various UN Organizations.

The European Procurement Forum

- Founded in 1996, first seminar in 2003
- Main activities:
 - Annual seminar with UN Officials
 - Training for companies and government trade representatives
 - Assistance to EU Member States in Procurement matters

The EUPF Seminar: Goals

1. Providing EU companies with info and tools to access the UN Procurement market;
2. Allowing EU companies to present themselves to UN Procurement staff;
3. Giving companies the opportunity to B2B network with other participants.

16th Annual EU-UN Seminar

April 1 – 2, 2019 in New York

- UN agencies procurement needs
- Training on registration process and other aspects of the procurement process
- Workshops presented by UN Staff focusing on 5 specific industries:
 - IT, Cybersecurity and Smart Peacekeeping
 - Waste Management and Power Generation: Environmental Management
 - Water & Sanitation and Purification
 - Construction and Engineering
 - Logistics & Transportation

15th Annual EU-UN Seminar Registration Timeline

- Registration has been opened on January 14, 2019
- Early bird fee till January 31, 2019
- Registration closes on February 28, 2019
- Cancellations till March 15, 2019
(only if no 1on1 meeting has been proposed)

1-on-1 Meetings

- Nearly 250 estimated 1-on-1 meetings between UN staff and companies and B2B
- The UN organizations will select the companies they would like to meet with.
- Invited UN Organizations: DOS, UNDP, UNICEF, UNOPS, DFS, World Bank

For more information

- Please visit www.eupf.org

- Contact info@eupf.org or your Country Representative directly (via your country's Permanent Mission to the UN or Consulate General)